Class History

We, the class of 1953, began our glorious high school days in the fall of 1949, as fearless and eager freshmen. Nothing could stop us from becoming the greatest class in L. H. S. history. We elected our class officers: Dan Sullivan - president, Paul Greassar - vice-president, Janet Gwinn - secretary, and Carol Diedrick - treasurer. We put up a stout fight but lost the field day to the older sophs. by a narrow margin. We shook that off and in the spring tackled the freshman-sophomore prom with full vigor. It was a very nice dance we put on, and we have been proud of it to this day. So ended our first year in high school.

In September of 1950, we started a victorious sophomore year with even more spirit. We confidently chose: Dan Sullivan - president, Pat Wilson - vice-president, Carol Diedrick - secretary, Betty Rowden - treasure. We romped over the freshman in the field day and looked on the bigger things. Our chance to dethrone the juniors in the Student Council elections was used with success, and we succeeded in sweeping in all three of our candidates: Dan Sullivan - president, Pat Wilson - vice-resident, Betsy Pickard-secretary-treasurer. We closed the year with an enjoyable dance put on by the freshman and the assembling of one of the best floral ropes ever carried by a graduating class.

The fall of 1951, found us back in school looking forward to an eventful year. To lead us we chose: Chuck Schroeder - president, Don Russell - vice-president, Carol Diedrick - secretary and Betty Rowden - treasurer. We produced a great play, "The Little Dog Laughed" starring Richard Moses and Phyllis Stevens. Another feather in our cap was the re-electing of Pat Wilson and Besty Pickard to the staff of three Student Council officers. As spring wore on we were confronted with putting on the biggest event of the year, the junior-senior prom. We chose the theme, "A Stairway to the Stars". The gymnasium was decorated with sparkling stars and beautiful murals, and the prom was a huge success. The annual swing-out closed another unforgettable year!

In 1952 we returned to school as high and mighty seniors. We chose as our able leaders for our final year: Dan Sullivan - president, Chuck Schroeder - vice-president, Sandra Russell - secretary, and Norma Schoultz - treasurer. Many events marked the last year of our days in Lapeer High School. For our Senior play we chose a three-act comedy starring Gilbert Henderson and Anita Rath with an all-star cast which made it a big success. Another big job was the yearbook. We elected Janet Gwinn as editor-in-chief, and she and the staff did a first-rate job as you can see. All too quickly came the prom and the trip. There were also the Swing-Out Day, Baccalaureate, Honor Assembly, and Commencement. Unbelievable as it may seem, our high school years were over.

Looking back at the past four years, we would like to show keep appreciation to all our sponsors, Mr. Bachus, Mrs. Weaver, Mr. Rhodes, Mrs. Lhendorff, and Miss Ross, along with Mr. Schickler and Mr. Seaton, for their guidance and wonderful help through our last high school year.

Class Prophecy

Dear Mr. Seaton:

Well, things have really been happening around Lapeer the past few years.

All our show people have really gone places. Phyllis "Boom Boom" Stevens and Dorothy "Swabbie" Stocker are a big hit on Broadway with their "Honey Bun." Down in New Orleans, Elizabeth Coulter is making a splash hit on Bourbon Street. Betsy Pickard is now starring in the new movie "Falling in Love Can be Fun." Our Metropolitan Opera star, Stuart Andress, has just returned from a concert tour around the world. Sandra Russell has signed a ten year contract with the Skating Vanities. Anita Rath has the leading role of a Broadway play, and Rose Kearney is the "lady in waiting." Don Bricker, Paul Greasser, and Bill Bitters are starring in a new version of "The Three Musketeers." Louis Brown plays first Chair Bass in the First Symphony Orchestra. Yvonne Blackwelder, Betty Bliss, and Shirley Peasley are now posing as artists' models. Tom Dugan is Lapeer's answer to Tony Curtis. Janet Johnson has taken our Dagmar's place, and Don Hill is one of the Bowery Boys.

Gladys Henry is still having her P.J. parties, and Wanda Carpenter is now six feet tall and can peek into Churchill's windows without jumping. Ethel Deaton just departed for Mars. She heard there were men there. People are still dying, and Betty Rowden is still delivering. The new mistress of ceremonies on "Information Please" is our one and only Johonna Horton.

Guess what! Dale West and Don Mosher now have their own shoe store and are making money "hand over foot." Chuck Vincent is still trying to sell fish "line" to any sucker who will bite it. And, Ron Smith has just won the national prize for being the nation's best liar. Howard "Toad" Herrick has just put out his first "Super Cecero 66." Dick Coulter and Bob McKenzie finally traded in "Henry" and "Old Liz" for a new Super 66.

Max Sutton, Jerry Deppong, Chuck Schroeder, Gilbert Henderson, and Dick Daly are serenading the cows at M.S.C. Don Russell over at the U. of M. has just received his B.S. Degree. (Take it anyway you want). The new faculty at L.H.S. was announced, and it includes Ellsworth Kile and Arla Bolton. Ora Flanigan took Dudley Manchester's place and Mildred Corey is back in school teaching the Golden Rule. Norma Shoultz is Dean of Women at Vassar College. Donna Owen is Chief Cook at the Irwin School, while Shirley Lassen, JoAnn Kuh, Nata Barr, Ann Scrimger, Donna Campbell, and Chuck Lester have left for missionary work in South Africa. Norma Roney is the new home economics teacher at Lapeer, and JoAnn Schickler has taken over Clyde's place.

Anna Schroeder is private secretary for Harlow Curtiss, President of G.M.C. Glira Quade, Elizabeth Psenski, Shirley Barber, and Barbara Forrester are keeping the boss company after hours.

Beverly Verran lives outside an army camp in Pennsylvania. Sally Schaaf and Marlene Russell have just seen the world through a port hole. Doug Sinclair is President Ike's private guard. Keith Stover is Captain of the Civil Air Patrol.

Mary Cote and Pat Wilson believe in "Cheaper by the Dozen." They already have a football squad. Howard Jones is still waiting for Joyce Davison to graduate. Mary Rohr is now Mrs. Richard Thiemkey and is an active member in the P. T. A., along with Virginia Reed, Sue Hodge, Marilyn Chapman, Marilyn McCoy and Leone Taylor. Betty Kelly and Shirley Laural have both announced the birth of twins. Eunice Firman and Esther Frederick have been married and living in Chicago. Ruth Andress and Lila Howell have finally settled down and each have six children, all with southern accents. Jeanette Fisher's husband is running a race neck and neck with Allis Chalmers. Janet Thayer and Jim Curtiss have just gone over Niagra Falls in a barrel. Did they make it? Oh yes, Jerriene is married to Fred and living on a farm, and Gordon Laidler and Beverly Spencer are happily married. JoAnn Mazurkiewicz and Genevieve Piorkowski just got married so they don't have to spell their names anymore.

Don Garwolds has finally gotten a promising concessions set up at Briggs Stadium. Leland Bliss now manages D. P.'s garage, and Hazen Bradshaw is head formen at Pontiac Motors. Richard Moses is the chief engineer at Ford Motor. Jim Leach is now the chief technician at W. J. R. Larry Hagenmeister, Harlow Hall, and George Houghtling have their own Sinclair gas station on Genesee Street. Steve Slater is running a barber shop in Columbiaville. Charles Stocker is head engineer of General Motors, and Bethine Crooked-acre is putting the spark in the A. C. spark plugs. Barbara Rawlins owns her own Dairy. Jerry Richards is manager of station W. W. J., and Erman Rowley has taken over his Dad's business. Ray Wildey is now ace photographer for "Parents" magazine. John Denton Mawer is the president of the National Farm Bureau. Don Shoultz is manager of D. and C. Dick Scrimger is head pin boy at the bowling alley. Shirley Shepard is head nurse at the bowling allies specializing in smashed fingers.

Dan Sullivan is running for Governor of the State of Michigan. The Democrats have taken over again, and bill Stacy has taken Mr. Thiemkey's place. Junjoy Barber evicted the Ziegenhardts -- at last.

Guess what? !! Bob Johnson finally, after long last, got a hair cut. Phin Arms now has reached the top shelf in the Lapeer Public Library. Bob Daly still remembers his embarrassing moments in eighth hour study halls. Gary Wilson and Gail Demerly just finished making up time for C. K. Dennis St. Pierre just woke up after falling asleep in Fitz's seventh hour government class, and Junior Tripp is till coming to government trying to get a better mark than Gloria Quade.

Ethel Goodrich has neverforgotten giving Mr. Rogers a rough time in eight hour study hall. Oh, and you remember Carol "Sue" Diedrick. She's still spraying the bomb around the locker room.

Ray Martus is an engineer working on the new bridge going across the Straits.

Class Prophecy

Georgiana Hocking is dental assistant for Dr. I. Drill. And, last but not least, Janet Gwinn just been voted the world's best toy buyer.

Charles McTaggart finally gave Wanda Carpenter a chance, but found out it was too late. JoAnn Marks is still serving Lapeer girls in her Columbia-ville Dairy Bar. Duane Balch is still making his weekly trips to Oxford, Jim Walker still believes in the "love 'em and leave 'em" line and is still trying it on the Davison, Lapeer, and Flint women. Any success, Doak?!!! Des Jardins' Drug Store has just put in a Bromo stand for Butch Lindquist and his gang.

Charlie Evans is bat-boy for the Tigers this year along with Dean Walker as pitcher. Jerry Goodrich has just taken Jack Kramer's place in the tennis world. The new heavyweight champion of the world is Ken Patten. Milton Ousnamer just won a contest on "The most beautiful eyes."

Ken Copeman, Marjorie Johnson, and Dick Parsell are having an art showing in Paris. David Mason won the "Farmer of the Year" award.

Charles Conley has just perfected a waterless shower, and Joe Daly finally completed his new house with seven foot doors. A new freckle cream has been put on sale--invented by Shirley Geoit. Bill Haskill and John Westendorff are still driving to Lapeer. Bill doing the seeing and John the driving. Elon Pearson is still master at almost dodging trains. Barb Oliver is always seen driving up and down Nepessing Street trying to show Bethine Crookedacre who he is. George Jarvis is, as he always was, enjoying his drives at noon. Mary Lee Hunter still has her parking lot rendezvous with Mr. X. We still see Marion Younker chasing boys around town. Orel Carson and Karl Moldenhaur are still burning up the pavement of Lapeer. Ralph Truax is seeing if Doak's old car can pick up for him what it picked up for Doak.

Louise Hotchkiss now has a new pick-up truck and has retained her nickname of "Speedy" while Bob Steinberg is still living up to his.

Bill Collier has just retired and Allen Fraser has taken his place. Jerry Titsworth has now taken over his grandfather's farm and has found that playing the trumpet helps the cows produce more milk.

Alberta Werden and Juanita "Jr." Thomas are still running around Lapeer snapping pictures.

Jo Ann Kirchner and Kate Wiley are still half a jump ahead of us.

Oh! and before I forget-Norma Risinger finally got her engagement ring.

Jeanette Miller is still talking while Barbara Ballard is still a quiet half of Winona Simmers' clan. Minnie Kaphengst still giggles like always. Betty Vlieg just raised enough money to buy the Hope Diamond to go along with the rest of her jewelry.

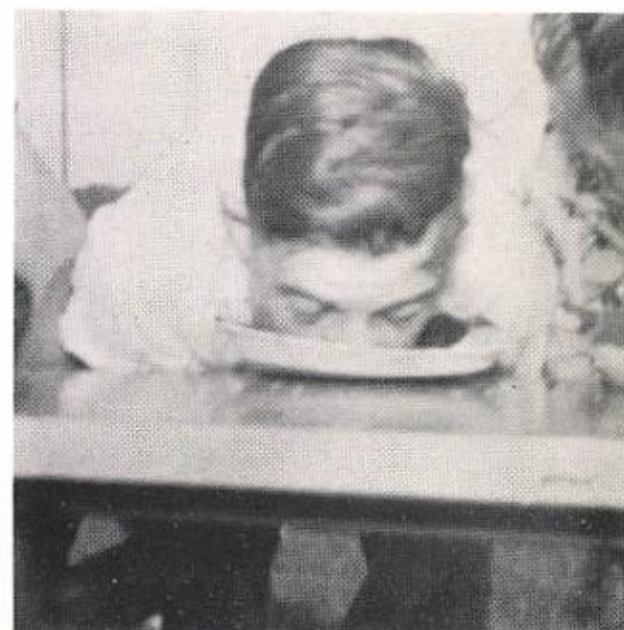

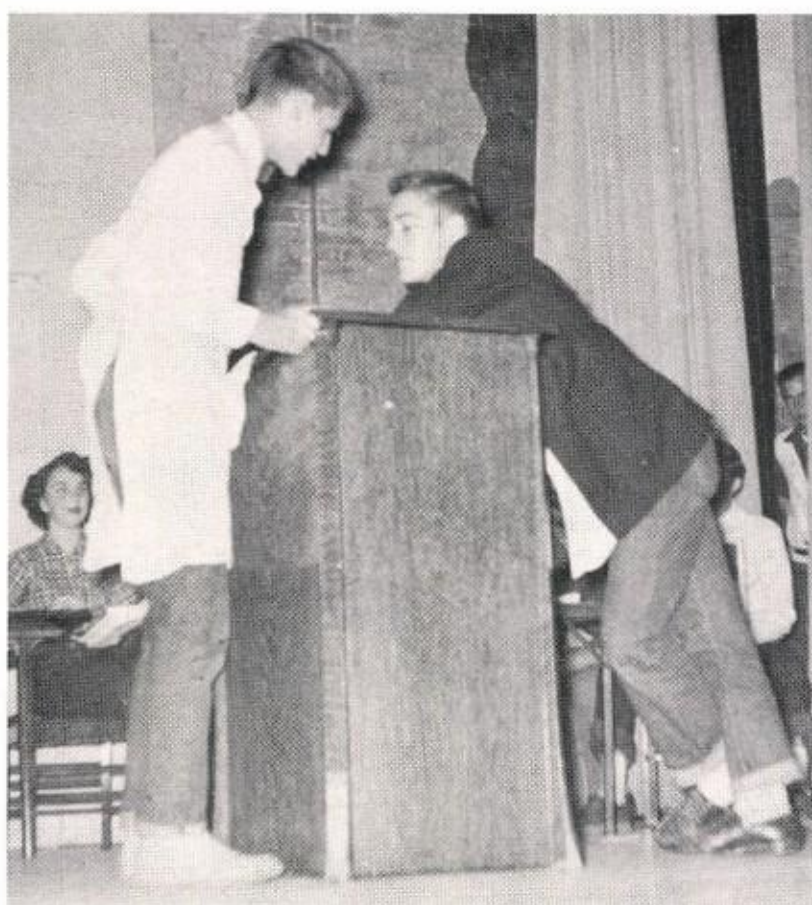

Lloyd Running is still running. Marshall Angle, Duane Lamphier, Marvin Avenall and Lloyd Arms are as quiet as ever but Bob Fick, Richard Suoppi and Paul Hiltz are keeping the spirit of "53" alive.

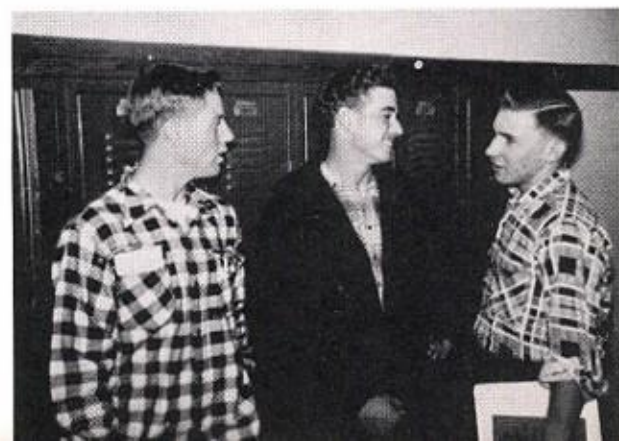

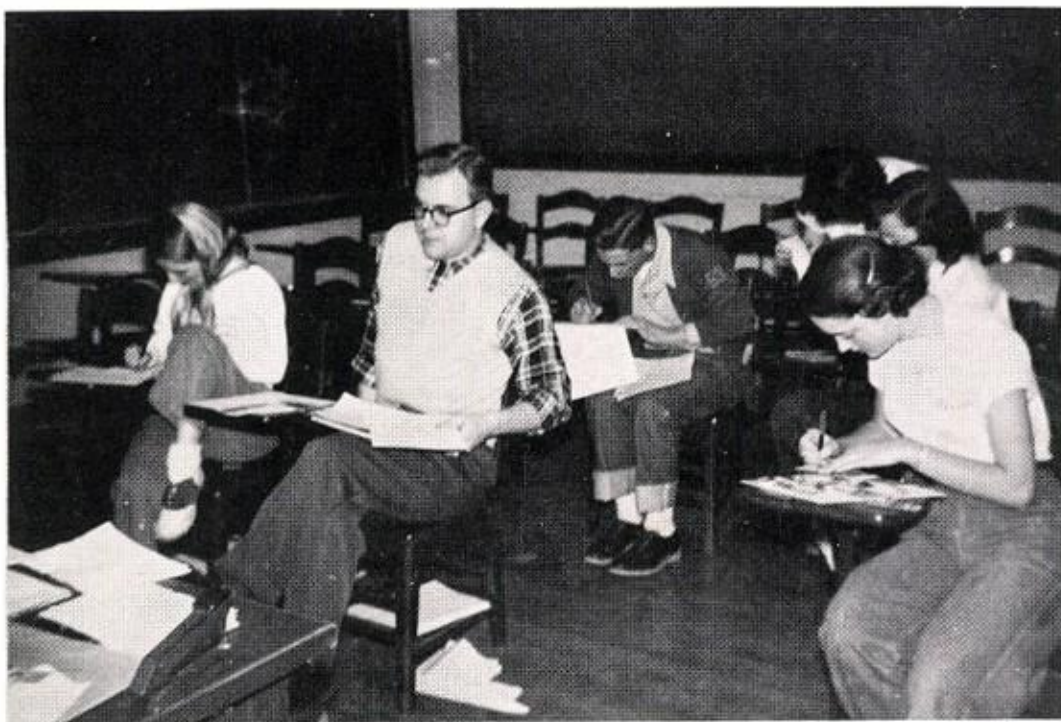

So long, that's all I know for now.

Quietly yours,
